

[Verse 1]

April seventh, nineteen forty-six
Montreal was where it all began
A little boy with a restless heart
Didn't know the road or the cards in his hand
Life was waiting just around the bend
With dreams too big for a little kid then

[Pre-Chorus]

I was running before I learned to crawl
Always chasing something down the hall

[Chorus]

I'm Rapid Robert, never standing still Climbing every fence and every hill
Scraped-up knees and a smile so wide
Full-speed living was my daily ride
Nobody knew where this road would lead
But I was already planting every seed
Rapid Robert, that's who I'd be
Just a young kid, wild and free

[Verse 2]

The neighborhood became my playground
Every back lane had a mystery
Making friends and making memories
Every day wrote another page for me
Some days laughter, some days tears
Growing up through those early years

[Bridge]

Nobody can ever buy those days
They're still alive in a thousand ways
Every memory still shines so bright
Like an old jukebox every Friday night

[Final Chorus]

I'm Rapid Robert, watch me fly
Always reaching for another sky
Every story started way back then
And I'd live them all again
Here's Chapter One for all to see
The beginning of my history
Rapid Robert, that's my name

And life's adventure became my game

Every scar became a story, every